

PRAYER MINISTRY

One of the most important decisions we can make is to get real with God - about our needs and His answers. The best way to get real is to be in a supportive local church where you are loved as you are, yet are also challenged in your areas of weakness and need. In addition, your pastor may recommend you seek prayer ministry. This information is intended to help you find the right ministry for your needs.

We have a listing on our website at www.shilohplace.org of ministries we are aware of that offer prayer ministry. It is not a complete listing, but is intended to assist you in finding help. Please read the disclaimer and consult with your pastor when using this listing.

Prayer Ministry at Shiloh Place

To request ministry please complete our Ministry Request Forms and send them to the Prayer Ministry Coordinator at our offices. We will then prayerfully seek to refer you to the most appropriate ministry team. The team will contact you to arrange the timing and location of your ministry sessions. We even have teams who are willing to travel to churches to minister to the congregants and leaders there.

When we refer you to a ministry team, you should expect to take one to two days for your ministry sessions, with each day typically having five 50 minute sessions. Different ministry teams may have different financial guidelines but our recommended minimum donation for ministry is $40 per 50 minute session.

To prepare for your ministry time we ask you to have read Jack Frost's book "Experiencing The Father's Embrace" and to have listened to the teaching series "Breaking Free." You can do this before or after requesting ministry.

For more information, or to request forms, call (855) 744-5641, or email: prayerministry@shilohplace.org. Forms can also be downloaded from our website at www.shilohplace.org.

Shiloh Place Ministries (SPM) Prayer Ministry Referral Policies

1. You can request ministry by returning these forms to our office, with a check for $50 (application fee) payable to SPM. We will then pray over your request and seek to refer you to the most suitable ministers. You will then be contacted by the ministers to arrange a time for ministry.
2. We require the approval of your pastor before we refer you to one of our ministry teams. Please have your pastor sign the bottom of this form indicating approval. If you are a senior pastor you may have your pastoral oversight sign the form, or you may simply write "Senior Pastor" in that space.
3. During your prayer ministry session, you will be given an opportunity to discuss issues in your life that you feel are hindering you from truly walking in God's Love. Our prayer ministers are not professional counselors. They will be praying over you in detail with the knowledge and faith resulting from their own experiences of emotional healing.
4. Prayer ministry sessions will not be a place to air any problem(s) that you perceive you might have with your local church or any of its leaders. Please understand that prayer ministers will not normally listen to these problems, but will immediately refer you to your pastoral staff. If your individual circumstances warrant, we will discuss these issues with prior approval from your pastor. Our goal, however, is always to focus on your issues, not theirs.
5. All ministry team members and Shiloh Place staff adhere to strict confidentiality. We will not discuss your case with anyone, including the pastoral staff of your church, except by your verbal permission or unless required by law (see Release of Liability overleaf).
6. Prayer ministry sessions are scheduled in advance, by the prayer ministers, in 50 minute sessions. Please keep your appointment, except in the case of emergency or sickness. If you must cancel your appointment, please do it as early as possible, so that the ministers are available to minister to someone else. If you fail to show up for your appointment without notice, you will be responsible in full to the ministers for the sessions booked. If you are late for your appointment, the amount of time you are late will count as part of your sessions.
7. We ask that you make a contribution to the support of the ministers who offer you this ministry. Different ministers have different guidelines, but we recommend $40 for each 50-minute block of ministry. We encourage your local church to pay this for you as a scholarship, or we suggest that you ask a friend or mentor to help with the cost. Please come prepared to make your contribution (in cash or by check only please) at the conclusion of your session unless you have agreed on other arrangements with the ministers in advance.
8. To prepare for your ministry time we ask you to have read Jack Frost's book "Experiencing the Father's Embrace" and to have listened to the teaching series "Breaking Free." You can do this before or after requesting ministry.

When you return the forms please check the following:

- You have signed this page agreeing to these policies.
- Your pastor has signed this page giving approval for you to come for ministry
- You have signed the acknowledgement and release form overleaf in the presence of a witness who also signs the form
- You have completed the Life History with information on your background and any current issues you wish to address in the ministry sessions.
- You have read "Experiencing the Father's Embrace" and listened to "Breaking Free" or will do so BEFORE your ministry sessions.

We prefer not to schedule sessions for those under medical treatment for depression or schizophrenia until we have reviewed the situation. Are you taking medication for either of these? Yes No

If yes – please send information on the treatment, including how long you have taken medication and results of treatment.
